

I Gran Reserva -1964, 1990, 1991-1995, 2004
V Reserva -1982

The story dates back to 1861. The winery was founded by one Eleuterio Martinez Arzok, who bought vineyard land in Rioja Alavesa. Arzok's plan was to produce bulk wine, which he did very well for many years to follow. In 1930, the operation was taken over by his son Faustino Martinez Perez de Albeniz, who began to bottle the wine for the first time. The winery began to develop a reputation for its quality, and Arzok's grandson Julio Faustino began exporting in 1960. Today, Faustino Rioja has around 650 hectares of vineyards, produces a wide range of wines and is the leading exporter of Gran Reserva Rioja in the world.
