Chappellet Winery, Napa Valley

Chappellet is one of Napa's oldest family-run wineries, producing some of the best Cabernet from their Pritchard Hill mountain vineyards, which have been hailed as Napa's Grand Cru. It is also recognized as one of the world's preeminent sites for growing Bordeaux varietals – in particular Cabernet Sauvignon. Chappellet was one of 1st Napa Valley wineries to plant cover crops and adopt no-till farming practices, and today the entire vineyard is farmed organically. From the vineyard team's commitment to low yields and meticulous canopy management to the Chappellet family's belief in replanting to augment quality, the cultivation of Pritchard Hill has produced California's most profound mountain-grown wines.

It is our great pleasure to have EMILY PAPACH, the master sommelier of Chappellet here to present the following wine to us:

2012 Chappellet Napa Valley Chardonnay

2011 Chappellet Napa Valley Merlot

2011 Chappellet Cervantes Mountain Cuvee
