Veneto

Veneto is a wine region in north-eastern Italy. Valpolicella is typically made from three grape varieties: Corvina, Rondinella, and Molinara. The most famous type of red wine is Amarone, which is a wine made from grapes that have been dried to concentrate their juice. This method is called “passito”.

Trapiche Single Vineyard Malbec Vina Christina Y Bibiana Coletto 2008

Mendoza, Argentina ~~$390~~ $270/btl

Trapiche is located in Mendoza at the foothills of the Andes and is Argentina's largest exported Premium brand, exporting today its wines to more than 80 countries world wide. Trapiche represents "the richness of diversity" in Argentina. Throughout its history, it has understood like no other the strength of the viticulture in Argentina and it has specialized in obtaining the best from every site to create unique wines.

RP 94: "The 2008 Malbec Single Vineyard Vina Cristina y Bibiana Coletto spent 18 months in new French oak. A glass-coating opaque purple color, it sports an already complex bouquet of pain grille, mineral, spice box, lavender, and black cherry. Dense and opulent on the palate, this layered effort gracefully combines elegance and power. Give it 4-5 years to fully open and drink it from 2015 to 2028. "
