

Pinot Noir Around the World

Pinot Noir wine is the finest wine in the world. This grape is grown around the world, mostly in the cooler regions, but the grape is chiefly associated with the Burgundy. Other regions that have gained a reputation for Pinot noir include Oregon, Central Otago, Marlborough, Yarra Valley and so on. Different regions bring about the different beautiful sides of Pinot Noir. Wineworld let you experience them all with super offering. Limited stock, please take action fast!

Numanthia 2010, Spain, Toro - RP 94!!

$465 Now at $400/btl

The Numanthia Estate lies near the small village of Valdefinjas, a small village in the renowned Toro region. Numanthia was founded in 1998 by the Eguren family, natives of Rioja, with the ambition to produce the best wine from Toro. The foundation of the Numanthia range is the production and selection of the best grapes from the Toro terroir, followed by winemaking that extracts their full potential, particularly the intense fruit flavours that are typical of the Tinta de Toro grape.

RP 94: "The 2010 Numanthia comes from a cooler vintage than the 2009 – a season when Manuel Louzada told me that he had to wear a pullover in the vineyard during picking! It is aged for 21 months in new French oak. The bouquet demonstrates more fruit concentration and clarity than the 2009, the 0.5% less alcohol making a tangible difference. The aromatics are more Medoc-like than the 2009. The palate is full-bodied with mouth-gripping tannins, yet it has a silky smooth texture. There is real attack on the mid-palate, perhaps a little more vigor and tension with hints of graphite and sous-bois towards the strict finish. This is due to be launched in September 2013 and should be at the top of any Toro-lovers' list – maybe even above Termanthia? Drink 2018-2028+ "
