Haut Brion 1988

(RP92)

This dark garnet-colored wine is showing notes of licorice, underbrush, compost, truffles, dried herbs, creosote, and sweet black cherries and currants. Medium-bodied, rich, but still structured, this wine unfolds incrementally on the palate, showing superb density and a lot of complex Graves elements. –RP92

Winemaker's note: It is a wine with great personality and charm. Bright straw yellow, the nose offers an ample bouquet of fresh fruity notes with scents of white flowers (lily of the valley and elder) and pleasant herbaceous nuances. Persistent on the palate, characterized by fragrant minerality.
