BH 93-96: "A very deeply pitched nose that displays fresh red and dark berry fruit and floral aromas along with notes of the sauvage that continue over to the serious and very solidly structured big-bodied flavors. This is an impressively scaled wine yet the supporting tannins are relatively fine though quite dense and as such, the overall impression is one of robust power even if it is refined in its delivery."

BH 89: "This presents a completely different aromatic profile with its distinctly earthy and sauvage aromas of super fresh red currant and wild dark berries. In the same fashion as the Chambolle there is excellent delineation and terrific intensity to the mineral-inflected middle weight flavors that deliver fine balance and persistence on the moderately austere finish. This too is well worth considering."

BH 90-92: "This seems to be similar to a hypothetical mélange of both the Charmes and the Fuées as cool yet sauvage aromas of blueberry, spice, dried flowers and forest floor introduce delicious, supple, stylish and elegantly shaped flavors that are also built on a base of firm minerality and a tannic spine that keeps everything beautifully well focused. Ultimately though, this is a wine of finesse and is very Chambolle in basic character."

BH 93: "A notably earthy nose of red currant, wild dark berries and humus leads to impressively intense big-bodied flavors that possess excellent mid-palate concentration as well as outstanding depth and length on the moderately austere finish. This should be reasonably approachable young but be capable of rewarding mid-term cellaring."
