What P2 & P3 stands for?

Dom Perignon P2 and P3: Dom Perignon announced changing the name of its late-release, recently disgorged Oenotheque series into a "P2" and "P3", referring to the second and third "plentitudes" of development in the evolution of a champagne.

Dom Perignon Oenotheque P3 1970 (Gift Box)
~~$11,600~~
$10,550/btl

On the Nose :

- Powerful roasted flavors (hazelnut and mocha)
- The fruitiness (fig) is still remarkably vibrant

On the Palate :

- Vivid impression of precision, freshness and dynamism
- Finish lingers with powdery notes of cocoa

Dom Perignon Oenotheque P3 1982 (Gift Box)

~~$11,980~~

$9,850/btl

On the Nose :

-Warm complexity of vanilla, malt, praline and dried fruits mixes swiftly with the first hints of fresh almond and crumpled leaves

On the Palate :

-The attack is round, flavoursome

-Full-bodied and creamy

-Remarkably balanced by a firm finish.

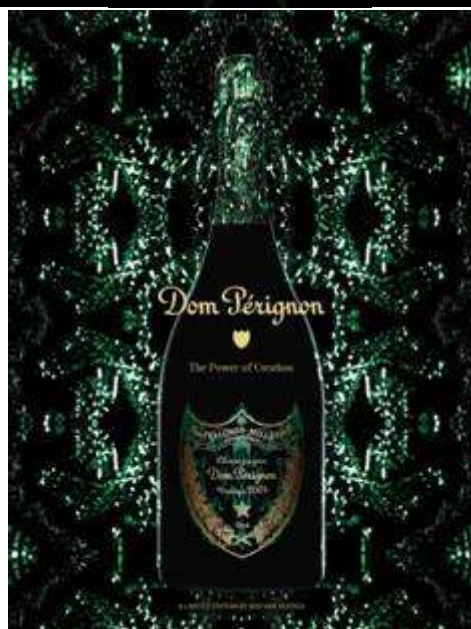

-Candied citrus fruit aromas mix with toasted notes

Dom Perignon Luminous 2004

~~$2,080/btl~~

$1,680/btl

"Lily-of-the-valley perfume and scents of lightly toasted brioche and almond rise from the glass of Moet's 2004 Brut Dom Perignon, along with hints of the apricot, pear and grapefruit that then inform a luscious and creamy yet strikingly delicate as well as consummately refreshing palate. Sweet-saline savor of scallop – also already intimated in the nose – lends compulsive saliva-inducement to a ravishingly rarified and persistent finish, joined by alkaline, nutty, liquid-floral, and nori seaweed notes for a performance of head-scratching subtlety and intrigue." –Robert Parker 95 pts

Krug Collection 1989 (Gift Box)

~~$6,600/btl~~

$4,580/btl

** Krug Collection bottles are numbered in descending order according to their rarity.

Krug 1989 is the result of this contrasting year ending with a very warm summer which gave mature, expressive, long lasting, complete and silky wines. The house blended from 25 growths, well-structured and persistent Pinot Noirs (47%), rich Chardonnays (29%) and sparkling fresh Meunier (24%). A very limited number of bottles of Krug Vintage are kept in ideal conditions in Krug's cellars. These bottles are tasted and appraised as they wait to blossom into a second life. Krug Collection 1989 is the time's second revelation of Krug 1989.

Tasting Note:

- Deep intense golden yellow color that announces maturity, opulence, harmony and elegance
- Exotic, complex nose considering of honey with spices and white fruits, truffle, earth, slightly browned apples, hint of high-toned flowers, yeast, and a gentle nuttiness in the background
- Deep palate with bright, high youthful tones of pear, green apple, citrus fruits, marmalade, fresh figs and even a touch of earth with a finish which goes on and on with undertones of mineral and spices

Krug Clos d'Ambonnay 1998 (Gift Box)

~~$16,000/btl~~

$14,600/btl

Krug Clos d'Ambonnay 1998 celebrates the rarest of Champagnes, the unique character of a particular Pinot Noir grape in the year of 1998. Only Krug's savoir-faire can successfully reveal the fullness and intensity of grapes from this single 0.68 hectare plot in the heart of Ambonnay, enhanced by over 12 years in the cellar gaining finesse and potential. Krug Clos d'Ambonnay 1998 has a very high ageing potential.

Tasting Note:

- Intense golden color with hints of red tones
- Amazing aromas of milky caramel, barley sugar, toasted bread, blackcurrant, red fruit jam and jellied fruits
- In palate, rich notes of wild fruits, tarte tatin, brioche, redcurrant and liquorice enhanced by an elegant long finish

Krug Vintage 2003 (Gift Box)

$1,950/btl

$1,700/btl

Year 2003 in Champagne is a year like none other, combining many circumstances: a dry winter and spring, very premature blooming followed by two serious frosts and then a summer of scorching heat. Krug decided to create a vintage for this particular year and named it "Vivacité Solaire" (Vivacious Radiance) to relate to unexpected story of a hot year that surprised Krug with fruit, freshness, balance, expressiveness, vivacity and elegance all the same time.

Tasting Note:

Expressive aromas of citrus, plum, liquid honey and brioche. Or by flavours of fresh summer fruits, red grapefruit along with candied peel, roast chestnut and caramelized apple tart with a long finish and persistence.

Prestigious Krug Limited Wooden Case Set

(3 btls of Grande Cuvee + 3 btls of Krug 2003)

$9,100/btl

$8,100/btl

Krug Grande Cuvee

-Recreation from the harvest of 2003

-Blend of 120 wines by the cellar from 10 different years

Krug Vintage 2003

-Expression of the rare and unexpected story of a hot year

Krug Vintage 2000

$1,620/btl (Gift Box)

$1,560/btl (No Box)

Krug 2000 is the dialogue between a powerful Pinot Noir and an aromatic and expressive Chardonnay in similar proportions with a final touch provided by a generous Pinot Menier. 2000 was a year of extremes, at once hot, rainy and stormy. The harvest was bountiful and the grapes were astoundingly rich. The House of Krug wanted to create a vintage for the last year of millennium, based on the unusual and climatically chaotic season. Known as "Gourmandise Orageuse" (Stormy Indulgence), this vintage brings together the complexity and the generosity of a very exciting year of Champagne.

Tasting Note:

Krug 2000 is rich, precise, complex and indulgent. It is one of the most intense, dramatic and romantic Krug vintages ever made. You may be struck by Krug 2000's expressive aromas of caramel, nougat, hazelnut and freshly baked pastries fresh from the oven. Or by the flavours of citrus-fruit gratins and lime zest with a very long finish and persistence.
