Dear Explorative Wine Lovers,

Rare of the Rarest!!! Bodegas Toro Albalá is one of the Top 100 Spanish Gold Wineries that gain a lot of international awards and reviews. They are located right in Cordoba's charming countryside, at Aguilar de la Frontera and Moriles towns. They officially became a business in 1922 when Jose María Toro Albalá started the initial project of the winery we are today.

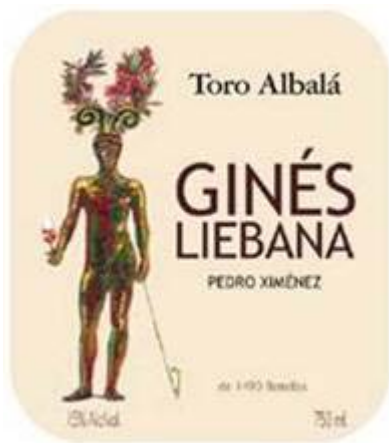

Bodegas Toro Albalá produces different styles of wine, some completely dry and others intensely sweet, but all of them are based on Pedro Ximénez grape. For order and enquiries, please contact us at 3154 9570 or Wechat/Whatsapp at 6481 0000 or email to info@wineworld.com.hk. Please go to www.wineworld.com.hk for our full wine list.

Convento range is the highest representation of artisanal winemaking. Selected vintages with an ageing process above 50 years in American oak casks. Single vintage and limited production. An attractive packaging matching the exclusive status of this wine: a handwritten wood label with bottle serial number and a wax sealing linking the front label which prevents counterfeiting. A system created by monks in the 16th century that Toro Albalá has taken up again as a highly valuable QC standard.

Don PX Convento Gines Liebana 1910

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: May 2007

Aging in Cask: 97 Years

Alcohol: 15%

Production: 1410 x 75cl bottles

$3,280/ btl

(extremely limited availability)

Tasting note: A single barrel of superb old PX was acquired in December of 2004, resulting in an unadulterated production of 1410 bottles in August of 2005. This is a relic of the ages, with fully developed tobacco and fig aromas followed by a silky and never-ending finish.

Don PX Convento Selección 1929 (RP 95)

(individual wooden case)

$1,730/ btl

$19,800 for 12 btls or up ($1,650/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: November 2014

Aging in Cask: 85 Years

Alcohol: 18.0%

Production: 6,200 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 95 points - "Older is not necessarily better. The extreme 1929 Don PX Convento Selección is a thick, dense and unusual, rare sweet beast. It is very dark with a green border, dense, oily and serious full-bodied palate with the profile of a PX from Jerez. With 500 grams of residual sugar per liter, it is a little monolithic, a little heavy and not so easy to drink. Still it is an impressive, very sweet wine that is really unique. 6,200 bottles were filled in September 2014."

Don PX Convento Selección 1946 (RP 100)

(individual wooden case)

$2,080/ btl

$23,760 for 12 btls or up ($1,980/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: September 2011

Aging in Cask: 65 Years

Alcohol: 17.0%

Production: 13,200 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 100 points - "Dehydrated under the sun at the time of the Second World War, was only bottled in September 2011. This is an extreme wine, my first descriptor was ultra-mega-super concentrated. It is unbelievably powerful, both in the nose and the palate, full of umami, with sweet cinnamon, Christmas cake, camphor, petrol, lemongrass,

Belgian chocolate and butter. Incredibly complex and rich, sweet, balanced and smooth in the palate, it is both very sweet and somehow salty, and with time it develops a black olive note...These wines are kept for generations and offered in very small quantities, but it's amazing that you can still buy and drink something so old, and I'm even tempted to say that it might represent good value for what it is. A real tour de force sweet wine. Drink it if you ever have the privilege to do so from 2013-2060."

Don PX Convento Selección 1955 (RP 98)

(individual wooden case)

$1,480/ btl

$16,800 for 12 btls or up ($1,400/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: September 2014

Aging in Cask: 59 Years

Alcohol: 16.5%

Production: 10,400 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 98 points - "One more single-harvest, old sweet wine, the 1955 Don PX Convento Selección was bottled in September 2014 and it had been aged slowly in very old American oak barrels and getting thick and concentrated through evaporation. It's 320 grams of sugar are (partially) compensated by 6.5 grams of acidity. It has a nose and palate of chocolate-covered candied orange, spices, molasses. I'd say the dominant aromas in the nose are dark chocolate. It's very dense, developing notes of very concentrated licorice and balsamic, mint, camphor and evolving notes of petrol with time. Complex, rare and unique. 8,400 bottles."

Seleccion range comprises our selected vintages with an ageing period above 25 years. Single vintage and limited production. A unique wine fulfilling the desires of most demanding tastes and wine collectors.

Don PX Selección 1949 (RP 97)

$1,480/ btl

$16,800 for 12 btls or up ($1,400/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: September 2011

Aging in Cask: 62 Years

Alcohol: 19.0%

Production: 1,750 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 97 points - "The 1949 Don PX Reserva Especial differs from the other old wines from the winery as it is less dark, it even has a (very dark) translucent tone compared with the others, maybe because it has 2% more alcohol. It feels incredibly elegant and balanced, fresher in comparison than the beasts from 1962 and 1946, medicinal, full of spicy notes of cinnamon, cloves, a touch of ash, and the smell of an antique shop. The palate is fluid, sweet and fresh. Putting a drinking window to these wines feels a bit silly. You should drink it whenever you have the occasion. Drink 2013-2040."

Don PX Selección 1962 (RP 95)

$970/ btl

$11,160 for 12 btls or up ($930/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: September 2011

Aging in Cask: 49 Years

Alcohol: 17.0%

Production: 1,950 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 95 points - "The 1962 Don PX Reserva Especial is pitch black, dense as (used) motor oil, medicinal and balsamic, with a grassy nose of licorice, black olives, roasted coffee, smoke and ash, very intense and expressive in the palate, spicy (nutmeg) with incredible length, perhaps not as integrated as the 49 and 46. These wines have to be tasted to be believed. It was bottled after 49 years aging in bota. Drink 2013-2040."

Don PX Selección 1965 (RP 97)

$1,180/ btl

$13,440 for 12 btls or up ($1,120/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: September 2014

Aging in Cask: 49 Years

Alcohol: 16.5%

Production: 4,200 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 97 points - "Small lots of old vintages are released following no apparent logic, like this 1965 Don PX Selección, which is produced with white Pedro Ximénez grapes but it's black rather than white, bottled in June 2014 with 290 grams of residual sugar. It has a nose of pure curry, aromas of an Indian restaurant, very balanced, not as sweet as others, in fact it's more bittersweet than sweet, combining the spices with bitter chocolate and with very good acidity that makes it relatively easy to drink. 9,600 bottles were filled."

Pedro Ximenez sweet wines are produced with sun-dried grapes and have an elegant deep amber colour. A wine full of pleasant fruity aromas and endless taste of dried fruits; a true delight for sweet wine lovers.

Don PX Gran Reserva 1983 (RP 91)

$290/ btl

$3,240 for 12 btls or up ($270/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: Jun 2012

Aging in Cask: 29 Years

Alcohol: 17.0%

Robert Parker 91 points - "The 1983 Don PX Gran Reserva has been aged in old oak barrels until bottled in 2012, and is several steps up in age and complexity. Here the dominant notes are tar, graphite, smoke, roasted coffee and dark chocolate. It's extremely concentrated, dense and sweet, ends very spicy with curry notes and stays in your mouth for minutes. Drink 2013-2025."

Don PX Gran Reserva 1986 (RP 92)

$290/btl

$3,240 for 12 btls or up ($270/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: Jun 2014

Aging in Cask: 28 Years

Alcohol: 17.0%

Production: 42,000 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 92 points - "Toro Albalá has been releasing vintage-dated, sweet wines in chronological order for a while (I have great memories of the 1972) and the 'current' release is the 1986 Don PX Gran Reserva, which is a dark, sweet and concentrated dessert wine aged in American oak casks until bottling in June 2014. It has 350 grams of residual sugar. It's extremely dark, motor oil-dense, sweet wine with notes of raisins, hints of flowers, minty with aromas of candied orange peel and herbs, really aromatic and showy. The palate is dense, with the sweetness balanced by good acidity plus spicy and chocolate flavors. 40,000 bottles and 25,000 half bottles produced. The price shown is for a full bottle."

Don PX 2010 (RP 88)

$180/btl

$1,956 for 12 btls or up ($163/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Alcohol: 17.0%

Robert Parker 88 points - "However good their dry wines could be, the winery gained its reputation with the sweet, old Pedro Ximenez. The 2010 Don PX, a rarity, being from a single harvest, aiming at showing the younger, fruity side of this style of wine produced with Pedro Ximenez raisins is viscous and has a medium-brown color. The powerful, honeyed nose is dominated by aromas of raisins, dried apricots, curry, molasses and sugar cane. The palate is dense, clean and sweet. Drink 2013-2015."

Amontillado is a result of exposing our premium quality 10-year aged Fino wine to oxidative ageing under the veil of yeast in American oak casks. The pleasant complexity of its nutty aromas and endless palate to the find the best metaphor to describe this jewel

Marques De Poley Amontillado Viejisimo Solera 1922 (RP 90)

(500ml)

$198/btl

$2,256 for 12 btls or up ($188/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: Annually

Aging in Cask: Solera, Min. 35 years

Alcohol: 21.0%

Production: 15,000 x 50cl bottles

Robert Parker 90 points - " The NV Amontillado Viejisimo Solera 1922 Marques De Poley, produced from Pedro Ximenez grapes aged in a solera of old American oak barrels under flor and later put through oxidative aging. It wears a medium amber color with green edges denoting old age (around 35 years) and a creamy nose of sweet hazelnuts, spices and a touch of smoke. Medium-bodied, with lively acidity and pungent flavors, it ends with an intense, bitter finish. Drink 2013-2016. "

Amontillado Convento Seleccion 1971 (RP 94)

(individual wooden case)

$1,180/ btl

$13,440 for 12 btls or up ($1,120/ btl)

Grape Variety: 100% Pedro-Ximénez

Bottled: Jun 2009

Aging in Cask: 38 Years

Alcohol: 21%

Production: 975 x 75cl bottles

Robert Parker 94 points - " This is a wine that was sold some time ago, but some of it remains in the market (I bought some bottles!), so I opted for including it here just for reference. I'm talking about the 1971 Amontillado Viejisimo, a single-vintage Amontillado with strong balsamic aromas, varnish, tar, hazelnuts, some roasted, charred notes and slight chemical aromas; the roasted, charred notes develop more with time. The palate has some sweetness that makes it round and approachable before the slightly bittersweet finish."
