Dear US Chardonnay Lovers,

While it's time to replenish your stock after serious depletion during the festive season, we're pleased to share with you an exciting range of Chardonnays sourced from various premium wine producing regions in the US, with a handful of our favourites from Russian River Valley, Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County and Central Coast, among others that are definitely worth a try. Some of these are limited production, now grab your chance to try out these wines at the lowest offer in town.

For order and enquiries, please contact us at (852) 3154 9570 or Wechat/Whatapp at (852) 6481 0000 or email to info@wineworld.com.hk. Please go to www.wineworld.com.hk for our full wine list.

LA CREMA

La Crema Monterey Chardonnay 2013 [WA92]

$178/btl | $168/12 btl BUY

Wine Advocate 92: "Treated essentially the same way as the Russian River cuvée, but from a different area of California, the 2013 Chardonnay Arroyo Seco has more tropical fruit, orange marmalade, white pineapple, delicate smoke and vanilla. This is a nice, broad, savory, very exotic Chardonnay compared to the more classic Russian River." - Robert Parker in Dec 2014

KENDALL-JACKSON

Kendall-Jackson Grand Reserve Chardonnay 2013 [WA90]

$178/btl | $168/12 btl BUY

Wine Advocate 90: "The real superstar, if you want to spend a few more dollars, is the 2013 Chardonnay Grand Reserve, which is a blend of 54% Monterey estate fruit with 46% Santa Barbara estate fruit. This is aged in 31% new French oak and a touch of American wood as well, for nine months prior to bottling. The wine shows honeysuckle, brioche, pineapple, mango, and orange notes in a boisterous, exuberant, richly fruity, but pure, medium-bodied style with the oak kicked to the background.” – Robert Parker in Dec 2014

Flying Horse Russian River Chardonnay 2009 [WE85]

$279/btl | $258/12 btl BUY

Wine Enthusiast 85, and here's what they said about this wine: “Sweet oak, buttered toast and caramel flavors dominate this Chardonnay, overwhelming flavors of tropical fruits at the core. The palate feels soft, making the oak even more pronounced.”

Flying Horse current selection of wines are from a historic vineyard located in the heart of Napa Valley, and particularly the Chardonnay comes from the premium sub-region Russian River Valley - Unique terroir of rocky, well drained soils with hot days and temperate evenings that deliver superior wines in limited quantities.

R&B CELLARS

R&B Sarabande Chardonnay 2012

$168/btl | $158/12 btl BUY

Tropical notes with hints of pineapple and apple with the slightest hint of butterscotch and coconut. The wine is big and rich, yet completely balanced. While oak is there, it is completely integrated into the wine. The acid is crisp and vibrant, yet perfectly balanced by the rich fruit, mineral characteristics and long finish.

Robert Parker rated a recent Morlet Chardonnay and said it “may be one of the all-time great Chardonnays ever made in California.”

Morlet Coup de Coeur Chardonnay 2013 [WA96-99] $1,280 BUY

Wine Advocate 96-99: “Of all the Morlet Chardonnays, the most minerality is found in the 2013 Chardonnay Coup de Coeur, which offers up copious notes of orange blossoms, pineapples, mangoes, honeysuckle and subtle vanilla as well as toast. Full and rich with great acidity and a wet stone-like underlying minerality, it should drink well for a decade or more.” - Robert Parker in Dec 2014

Morlet Ma Princesse Chardonnay 2013 [WA96-98] $680 BUY

Wine Advocate 96-98: “The 2013 Chardonnay Ma Princesse offers up scents of honeyed peach, poached pears, brioche, honeysuckle and caramelized citrus. Full-bodied with a Bâtard-Montrachet-like richness and intensity as well as background minerality, this profound white wine should drink well for 10+ years.” – Robert Parker in Dec 2014
