 Library Reserve Pre-arrival Offer Ex-Chateau

Levy & McClellan Winery, planted in 1999, is a wine birthed by Bob Levy and Martha McClellan. Spending years searching for the right plot with the right soil to plant the grapes, Bob and Martha wants a wine that express the highest level of quality and expression of the terroir where they grow with the least amount of input and manipulation during vinification.

Bob Levy has been the winemaker at Harlan Estate since its beginning, and, along with owner Bill Harlan, is in the process of making Bond as prodigious as Harlan Estate. Many people, including those owners of Bordeaux chateau, regard Harlan Estate as the 1st growth of California.

Martha McClellan has been the winemaker for Napa Valley superstar cult wineries, Blankiet and Sloan. Robert Parker claimed “The goal to produce world-class wines at Blankiet Estate has been accomplished, combining the extraordinary power of the site with unbelievable elegance and definition.”

“These efforts are produced by two quiet, somewhat reclusive individuals with extraordinary resumes, limitless talent, and a perfectionist, nearly obsessive attitude toward making world-class wines.”

Levy & McClellan
Ampersand Cabernet Sauvignon 2010

“This Cabernet blend offers a truly voluptuous, supremely satisfying experience now and promises grandeur for the next decade. Dark purple-colored, it launches forth with alluring aromas of toasted vanilla oak, cassis, and hints of baking spices. Primary notes of dark chocolate, currants, figs, and dates are deftly balanced across a tightly wound texture that opened up after 15 minutes in the glass. This monumental wine is a leviathan now and ready to thrill after decanting. Enjoy now through 2022+.”

Levy & McClellan Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

Robert Parker 95+: "Levy and McClellan's 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon, which spent 26 months in new oak (mostly Taransaud), is developing at an incredibly slow rate. Its opaque ruby/purple color is accompanied by beautiful aromas of roasted coffee, melted chocolate, creme de cassis, burning embers, camphor, and a hint of cedar. On the palate, the wine combines considerable substance, power, and extract with a sense of harmony as well as elegance. Black currant, blackberry, and gamy, meaty notes are also present in this full-bodied effort with an incredibly long finish. The wine is just beginning to shed some tannin and become accessible. It will benefit from another 4-5 years of bottle age, and will easily last for three decades or more."

Levy & McClellan Cabernet Sauvignon 2008

Robert Parker 93+: "The 2008 Red Wine Napa Valley is a huge, plush wine bursting with dark fruit, smoke, ash and licorice. Today the tannins are firm and quite imposing, but the wine develops nicely in the glass, hinting at what is to come over the next handful of years. Floral notes add perfume and brightness on the finish. This is a very beautiful, brooding wine graced with considerable class and personality. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2023."

More about Levy McClellan:

THE LAND

Martha and Bob have been so passionate about wine and winemaking. All through these years when they were winemaking for others, they want to produce wine for themselves. They have had lots of opportunities over the years to buy grapes from some of the best vineyards in Napa Valley, but this wasn't what they have wanted. Martha and Bob had specific ideas not only on where the grapes were grown, what the surrounding areas around the vineyard should be and what type of soil they wanted to grow the vines in, but also very specific ideas on how to prepare the land, how to plant the vineyard, what the proper row direction should be, the right exposure, which compass direction the vineyard faces, what type of rootstock, what type of scion wood (clonal selections), how the spacing should be (the vine density), how it should be pruned, what the proper farming practices are for that location and on and on...

It took them many years to find the right spot and the right location, turning down many sites along the way. In 1999, they found a place that they both felt was the perfect spot so they began to prepare the land and plant the vineyard. The vineyard is now on its 17th year and they felt they have been successful in accomplishing their goals - The highest expression of where they grow at the highest level of quality possible.

TERROIR

In Bob's dictionary, "terroir" is about human decisions, but decisions that impact the quality and character of the wine, just as much as the winemaking decisions and just as much as the makeup or composition of the soil. It is a combination of these factors that all are responsible for the word "terroir".

SOIL

Bob & Martha picked the land with volcanic soil – Aiken Series with a combination of volcanic rocks and loamy shallow topsoils on top of a subsoil structure called Volcanic Tuff or Volcanic ash.

FARMING

In order to achieve better quality of tannins, Bob & Martha grow the vines without irrigation, the result is more supple, rounder, richer and achieve physiological maturity at lower sugar levels than if the vines were irrigated constantly. The wine, ultimately are more concentrated, show more character of where they are grown (terrior) and have both richer and more supple tannins.

WINEMAKING

Their viticulture knowledge in the vineyard have allowed them to produce the highest quality wine with the highest expression of the land where the vines grow with the least amount of input or manipulation during vinification. They have never the need to inoculate with commercial yeast or commercial malo-lactic bacteria. Because of what they have been able to accomplish in the vineyard with regard to tannin quality and suppleness, they have never fined or filtered their wines. Their goal is to produce the wine in such a way so as to not reduce all the great character they have been able to build into the wine while it was growing on the vine.
