Chassagne Montrachet-based Pierre Yves Colin Morey (PYCM) is one of those wineries of which fame and prices have both visibly risen over the past few years. A young domaine-negociant, Pierre Yves, eldest son of Marc Colin of his namesake Domaine Marc Colin; and his wife Caroline Morey founded Maison Pierre Yves Colin Morey in 2001. In 2005, he officially left his family estate to fully focus on his own business, adding his 6-hectare share of family vineyard holdings to the PYCM label.

Pierre Yves' deliberate choice to eschew lees stirring and mixed use of old and new larger 300L French barrels preserve distinctive minerality and precision in his Chardonnay. One would naturally gravitate towards his Saint Aubin and Chassagne Montrachet expressions - those are after all 100% domaine fruit planted and eventually vinified by the duo. PYCM's Puligny Montrachet and Meursault wines are vinified by quality fruit sourced from growers. Pierre Yves chose not to differentiate his domaine and maison bottlings as how Burgundians normally do.

The team has secured a boutique selection of PYCM for your consideration. Limited stock - first come first served!
