Dear Pauillac Wine Lovers,

Keep reading if you like your Bordeaux masculine, filled with inky black fruit, framed by firm, structured tannins and carries an overall aristocratic air. If that is your preference, Pauillac is your cup of tea. Known particularly for its deep gravelly terroir, Pauillac breeds some of the most well-known Cabernet Sauvignon-driven clarets in Bordeaux. Its hallmark pencil shavings, cedar, graphite and cassis characters give the wines a refined, multi-layered, masculine profile of aromas and flavours. WineWorld team compiles a selection of classic Pauillac producers from mature vintages such as 1975, 1982 and 1990 to younger vintages in the 2000s. Happy drinking!

Les Forts De Latour 2004

WA 90

The estate's second wine continues to go from strength to strength. The 2004 Forts de Latour (includes 75% Cabernet Sauvignon) reveals a deep ruby/purple hue, classic evolved cedary, lead pencil, and cassis characteristics, medium body, beautiful sweetness of fruit, and a more forward, evolved character than its big sibling. Enjoy it over the next 15+ years.

Pichon Baron 2005 (1.5L)

WA 93

The 2005 Pichon Baron has a dense ruby/purple color, sweet crème de cassis fruit, lots of cedar wood and forest floor, medium to full body, ripe tannin, and a long finish of a good 30+ seconds. This is a beauty and one of the most successful Pauillacs of this vintage. Drink it now through 2035.
