Dear Huet wine lovers,

Domaine Huet produces some of the longest-living Chenin Blanc, from refreshing, crisp dry to unctuously sweet (yet always balanced!) styles. Our Huet selection features both aged and freshly released versions of Huet from all three single vineyard parcels. Wanting to find out more about the differences of Huet's single vineyards? Here's our brief guide.

Le Haut Lieu: The first vineyard purchased by Victor, Huet, founder of the domaine; back in 1928. Known for giving generous, plush-textured wine.

Le Mont: Stonier terroir gives wines of distinctive minerality, elegance and finesse.

Clos du Bourg: Considered the greatest vineyard of Vouvray by Gaston Huet. Comes with shallowest, stoniest soil among the three vineyards and produce wines that marry expressiveness, texture and precise, razor-sharp minerality.
