Good afternoon, for those of you who have not yet picked a bottle for New Year Eve, how about wrapping the year up with a taste of well aged, old school Bordeaux? Clarets from the 1980s are drinking perfectly well now. Our team's preference has always laid with reds from the years of abundance - 1982, 1985, 1986, 1990. Expect a plush-textured, generous layer of ripe, dessicated fruit from these vintages. Whilst 1982 and 1900 both promises exuberance, 1985 and 1986 Left Bank will remind you of "traditional" Bordeaux - that stern, old school composition of inky dark fruit with pencil shavings, forest undergrowth and grilled bell pepper tones. Wanting to go further back than 1980s? Go for Pichon Lalande 1975 - a wine often voted wine of the 70s decade from international critics.
